

Jeannette Rankin
PEACE CENTER

Coordinating Council Application

Your name _____ Date _____

Address _____

Phone _____ E-mail _____

The JRPC is governed by a Coordinating Council. We have given this title to our governing board to reflect the working spirit of cooperation and non-hierarchy that we value. The following questions are intended to help you assess whether serving on the council is an effective way for you to work on peace and justice at this time.

Your responses will be shared with council and staff only. We appreciate your interest!

1. What association with JRPC have you had?
2. Are you a JRPC Member? _____ Yes _____ No
(CC Members are required to be current JRPC Members, so if selected you will need to agree to join the organization.)
3. Why are you interested in becoming a member of the JRPC Coordinating Council?
4. What are your personal goals for serving on the council?
5. Do you understand and can you commit to the mission and vision of the Center and to consensus decision-making?
6. Can you make a 3 year commitment to the council? (we anticipate this being approximately 6 to 10 hours per month, some financial contribution and possibly work at the center as part of an orientation or ongoing attempt to staff our various initiatives)
7. What have you done with other groups or activities to demonstrate your commitment to peace, justice, and sustainability?
8. Describe the specific skills that you bring to the peace center.
9. What working group(s) or committees would you be most interested in working on? (Describe any experience or special talent you have.)
10. What fundraising experience do you have and what ideas can you bring to JRPC's fundraising efforts?
11. Additional comments (including mention of minority group affiliation or special interests or qualifications)

COUNCIL SKILLS AND EXPERIENCE MATRIX

Following are some areas of experience and some life situations that we have identified as important to be represented on our JRPC Coordinating Council. Please check those skills, expertise and particular voices you will bring to our group.

- Retail
  - Business
  - Event planning
  - Development and fundraising
  - Veteran
  - People outside the choir or usual peace community
  - Building, especially green building
  - Educator (middle school, high school, and/or college)
  - High school student
  - GLBTI
  - Accounting and money management
  - Local Government
  - Civic group
  - Legal
  - Financial Services
  - Computer
  - Writer
  - Other nonprofits with similar missions to encourage collaboration (Please list)
-

- Graphics, art, newsletters
- Religious community connection
- Connection with media (newspaper, radio or tv)
- Filming or photography experience
- Musician or connections with the entertainment industry

The following qualities are those we have identified as helpful for members of the Council who serve as a voice for the Center in the Community and also guide the activities of the Center. As you apply, please consider whether any of these describe you.

- Can commit the time
- An avid believer in JRPC's mission
- Good understanding of the organization
- Ability to get along with a diverse group of people
- Enthusiastic
- Able to think outside the box
- Visionary