VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES AT THE JEANNETTE RANKIN PEACE CENTER

JRPC is a non-profit organization that works to educate and empower individuals to work together to build peace, justice and sustainability in our world. We have many activities and events around this mission, including a Fair Trade Store at our 519 S. Higgins location. With only one staff person full-time, we rely heavily on the assistance of volunteers to get this work done. Volunteers can help with many things at the Center, including:

- Office work
- Building maintenance
- Computer design work, including flyers, newsletters and other graphics
- Database and website management
- Events planning and coordination
- Assistance with our Annual Peace Party in the fall, Peacemaker of the Year in the spring or other special events
- Fundraising
- Work in our fair trade store
- Window and store displays
- Tabling at events to talk about JRPC and sell fair trade and peace-messaging items
- Work in our library, organizing and categorizing books, videos and magazines
- Youth programming, including work in schools with elementary age children, as well as work in the high schools with things like counter-recruitment efforts
- Posting flyers at areas in the community
- Serving as a Conscientious Objector Mentor or on our Speaker Bureau for a variety of issues

Volunteers can choose to work a regular schedule or be available to assist on an as needed basis.

Anyone with skills and time to give who is interested in volunteering should call Betsy Mulligan-Dague, Executive Director at 543-3955, email us at peace@jrpc.org or stop by to complete an application.

We can guarantee that you will find many rewards by giving your time in the work of peace and justice!
